

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN FOR U.S. LIBERTY BONDS IS TO START IN OGDEN THEATERS THIS EVENING

The opening gun of the Liberty loan campaign will be fired at Ogdien theaters tonight when Four-Minute men will go over the top in an effort to stimulate public sentiment to such a virulent form of bond buying that Ogdien's quota will be taken before Sunday. Speakers will urge the audiences to buy their bonds the first thing in the morning, while speakers tomorrow evening will remind the crowds that they should not go to bed without becoming owners in Uncle Sam's latest form of freedom-saving securities.

Co-operation between the speakers and the bond sellers has been worked out carefully, and the local orators will keep in close touch with the situation and bring Ogdien's duty before the public throughout the whole course of the campaign. The joint luncheon of the speakers and committees yesterday resulted in a good understanding of the requirements of the situation, and is expected to bear much fruit. Next week it is anticipated that practically all of the farming districts of the county will be reached by the speakers. President C. H. Barton of the Weber club, acting for the Liberty loan committee yesterday, distributed speakers' badges to many of the Four-Minute men, and has asked Washington to furnish additional badges so that all may be supplied.

Reports made from the local organization to the state and national chairmen show that in the two combined campaigns on "Registration" and "Where Did You Get Your Facts," just closed, more than 100 addresses were delivered in the northern part of the state, and more than 45,000 people reached, this covering only the work of the theater speakers, and speakers at public meetings, while it is estimated that an additional 200 addresses were made, and about 12,000 reached through the work of the church and women's organizations of the Four-Minute men under charge of Mrs. J. G. Paik.

Speakers for tonight and Saturday are announced as follows:

Friday Night.
Orpheum—Frank M. Briggs.
Ogden—Joseph Chee.
Utah—Rev. J. E. Carver.
Alhambra—N. J. Harris.
Lycium—T. Earl Pardo.
Rex—Dr. S. W. Wherry.
Cozy—William H. Reeder, Jr.
Saturday Night.
Utah—Judge George S. Barker.
Ogden—John C. Davis.
Orpheum—Arthur Woolley.
Alhambra—Gus Wright.
Cozy—Adam Peterson.
Lycium—George Halverson.
Rex—John G. Willis.
Arthur Woolley will speak at Hooper this evening, and Adam L. Peterson and Superintendent H. C. Johnson will go to West Weber, while Stuart P. Dobbs will speak at Kanabville Saturday evening.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF THE CHURCH TO GIVE A RECEPTION

At the First Methodist church tonight, commencing at 8 o'clock the young people will give a reception to the teachers and students of the Ogdien schools. An interesting and lively social time is anticipated.

The following program will be given:
Address of welcome—Prof. Walter Underwood.
Piano solo—Miss Dorothy Long.
Reading—Mrs. Gertrude Carr.
Solo—Mrs. Iris Malone-Decker.
Whistling solo—Mrs. Addie Rowse-Cringle.

Piano solo—Miss Anna Dunn.
Solo—H. J. Dominey.
Reading—Miss Della Williams.
Solo—Mrs. Rosamond Laird-Smith.
Piano solo—Mrs. Vera Frey-Beason.
All friends of the church invited. Strangers will be given a cordial welcome.

leading part. The affair is shown in two scenes, the exterior of a Quaker church, and the interior of a high-life and high-speed cabaret. Six girls, dressed in startling costumes, sing and dance well, and Ned Norton, as I. M. Wise, is there with the comedy portion.

In a series of lightning changes, Marion Munson succeeds in carrying out about eight different characters in a play based on an army officer and a set of Tontoon spies. The piece is called "The Spy Nest," and moves with rapidity and some interest.

Three other acts also stand out on the program. Emily Darrell in the act, "Late for Rehearsal," has something new and very funny. While waiting for rehearsal to begin, she and the "assistant," Billy Jackson, bring out any number of chuckles. Versatility as expressed on the violin and cello is possessed by Cecilia and Verdi. They are nearly masters of the strings. The latter named has also a droll manner which goes well with the audience.

Songs of an entertaining nature is the attraction which endears Al Wohlman with his hearers. Wohlman has an excellent voice and his interpretation of the latest hits was heartily approved.

The three Bartos open the program with an athletic act. The trio are well trained and have any number of stunts to perform.

Realistic scenes of tanks in action are shown on the official British war film.

BUYING LIBERTY BONDS

Several Ogdien firms already have made a voluntary 100 per cent subscription for Liberty bonds. The Ogdien Iron Works yesterday announced it had done so and raised $6000 which will be subscribed early Saturday to its credit. This will mean the wearing of an honor badge by every employee of the institution.

The Woodmen of the World lodge at Ogden will purchase another $1000 liberty bond during the fourth loan according to an announcement made by officers of the lodge who met last evening to consider the question.

ALBERT E. ALLARD

Wagoner Albert E. Allard a member of the 145th Field artillery, battery B, is a son of Mrs. Mary Allard of 3158 Grant avenue. Wagoner Allard wrote home from England, but is probably now in France.

EARL MUNSON

Earl Munson, Co. F, 117th artillery, A. E. F. has written a letter to his brother Phinious Munson, 508 Twelfth street, telling him of the hard fighting he has been through since going to France as a member of the Rainbow division. He was in the thick of the fight when the Yankees forced the squareheads across the Ourcq and fought consecutively at the Lorraine sector, the Champagne front where they stood with General Gouraud's army after the famous "We will stand or die" order was issued, the west of Rheims, Chalons, the Marne, Hill 212, Serpy, Meurcy Farm and Seringes. He says:

"Dear Brother: I haven't got much to say but I am on the front again. The Huns have been sending over a few this morning but they are not doing much damage. I have sure been where they have been doing a lot of it. I am sending you a little letter we have got while over here and believe me I have been in every one of these battles. That Champagne front was sure he— I thought my days had come then. But they say the hardest battles are ahead of us yet. Well, what it takes to go through the Huns—we've got."

"Send me a newspaper."
"Today was the first day I have had anything to eat that came from Ogdien and it was some canned stuff that came from Craig's canning factory."
"Tell Dad to write a letter once in a while. His letters are just the kind I like to get."

"Love to all."

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR JABEZ DRAPER, KILLED IN FRANCE

Memorial services for Jabez M. Draper of Clearfield, who was killed in action July 21, will be held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the Clearfield meeting house.

Addresses will be made by Apostle David O. McKay, Bishop David Stoker and Capt. Charles R. Maybe, the latter being home on a furlough.

EASY PAYMENTS ON LIBERTY BONDS

Persons who will feel constrained to hesitate in purchasing liberty bonds because of the extra financial drain on their resources, may rest easy as the local banks have arranged a schedule of time payments which will lighten the burden and make it virtually easy for anyone to buy a bond. Those unable to spend $50 or $100 in a lump, may, by this plan, extend their payments over a period of several months.

The bank will accept 10 per cent of the face value of the bond, plus 1 1/2 per cent for the initial payment. The other installments will be made at the rate of $7.50 per month for six months, for the $50 bonds and $15 per month for six months for the $100 bond. Bonds of larger denominations may be purchased on the same basis.

The government requires 10 per cent initial payment, 20 per cent on November 21, 20 per cent on December 19, 20 per cent on January 16, and 30 per cent on January 30.

Do It the First Day

By Wilbur D. Nesbit

You know you are going to buy Liberty Bonds.
You wouldn't be square with yourself if you didn't.
You couldn't take off your hat to the flag with half the sense of ownership if you didn't.
You couldn't cheer the marching line of troops with half the thrill if you didn't.
You couldn't watch the Jackies go by with half the pride if you didn't.
You couldn't glimpse a battleship off the coast with half the joy if you didn't.
You couldn't read the war news with half the eager faith if you didn't.
You couldn't be 100% American if you didn't.

You know the Fourth Liberty Loan starts September 28th.
You know that buying a Liberty Bond isn't making a gift.
You know you are simply lending your money to your Government—to the best friend you and your mother and wife and sister and daughter have.
You know what security is back of your loan—security that means good interest and that your money will be paid back to you.
You know all of that—you know the business side as well as the patriotic side of it.

Then, buy your Liberty Bonds the very first day of the Loan. Don't wait. Do your thinking beforehand. You don't need to consider it; you don't have to be argued into it—you know you will buy Liberty Bonds. Be one of the first to get the badge of honor—the Liberty Bond button. Get yours on the first day—September 28th. You know what an example that will set.

Make September 28th your Liberty Bond day. Could you do a better thing right now?
